

Jewish Museum of Florida-FIU
Steven J. Green School of International & Public Affairs

"I Shoulda Been a Doctor": Bob Dylan, Jewish Folk Singer

MONDAY
MAR 21, 2022
7:00 P.M.

Scan to RSVP:

Join Steven Heine as he explores various aspects of Jewish influences on the spirituality expressed in Bob Dylan's lyrics, including biographical and interpretative approaches that are seen in terms of the traditional prophetic tradition and modern cubist perspectives. Offered as a virtual lecture.

Steven Heine is professor of Religious Studies and director of Asian Studies at Florida International University. He has published three-dozen books, mainly on the topic of East Asian religion and society. A longstanding fan of Bob Dylan's music, he has written Bargainin' for Salvation (2009) on Dylan's spirituality and presented at the opening conference of the Bob Dylan Institute.

Mondays at the Museum is a collaboration between the Jewish Museum of Florida-FIU and the Green School's Global Jewish Studies Program.

